

Inter-Nations Test Matches

Date of Issue: 20 March 2003

All National Associations are advised that the following procedures shall be followed for all Inter-Nations Test Matches.

Approval

No prior authorisation from the F.I.H. is required.

Technical Officials

The choice of umpires and technical officials is at the discretion of the countries concerned without any prior authorisation from the F.I.H.

All travel and accommodation costs for umpires and technical officials are the responsibility of the participating countries.

Fees

No fees are payable.

Registration of Matches

All Inter-Nations test matches shall be registered with the FIH.

The host National Association shall be responsible for sending to the F.I.H. a copy of the A-Teams Inter-Nations Match Result Form, together with a copy of the Match Report Form not later than two (2) weeks after the match (with a copy to the Continental Federation concerned, if the two countries are from the same continent).

A copy of the A Teams Inter-Nations Match Result Form is attached for information.
